

Global LPO Conference and Exhibition, Delhi, 11-12th April 2013

Global LPO Conference and Exhibition, Delhi, India, April 2013

Hello Patrons,

We would like to invite you to participate at the upcoming Global LPO Conference and Exhibition taking place in New Delhi on 11-12 April 2013. This conference is positioned to attract over 100 decision making professionals from the global lawyer's community including from the US, UK and other overseas locations.

It is being organized by Global Outsourcing Association of Lawyers \(GOAL\), the first membership based non-profit international organization for the legal outsourcing industry made up of the top international legal/IP outsourcing service providers, law firm partners, counsels, solo practitioners, government representatives, legal association representatives, other outsourcing service providers, consultants, academicians, investors, training and placement companies, software companies and other affiliated companies and members with the common goal of promoting the highest level of quality of legal outsourcing in a global environment.

GOAL is established to provide global lawyers the most influential knowledge sourcing and networking platform in the field of legal outsourcing. This unique organization has the capacity to develop collaborative, high-value events and conferences, webinars, web conferences, training, master classes and meeting programs enhancing the development and effectiveness of the LPO network. The organization also provides comprehensive LPO knowledge, advisory, networking and visibility to the buyers looking to outsource legal work.

We are confident that the GOAL is well on its way to increase development impact in the region and beyond. Please look forward to more dynamic initiatives from GOAL commensurate with the demands of a truly diverse and vibrant LPO industry.
